Dear Editorial Board of WACANA,
My name is Arini Sabrina, one of the authors of our article submitted to your journal. I, on behalf of my team members, would like to thank you for the opportunity to submit our article on the theme of 'reclaiming women's power; Indonesian and Southeast Asian women at the intersection of nature, nurture, and culture' entitled Depiction Restoring Women's Power through Eatery Names.
Unfortunately, there is no updated info regarding the follow up to our article or the journal published with such a theme aforementioned. We look forward to getting some information whether our article is accepted or not.
Again, we are delivering our warmest gratitude to the editorial board of WACANA. Thank you.

Dear editorial team of Wacana,
I am writing this email to ask for decision confirmation regarding our article with the title of Depiction Restoring Women's Power through Eatery Names that had been revised after being reviewed in February this year for April's theme publication on Reclaiming Women's Power. Hopefully there will be announcement as April is going to end soon. Thank you.
